

ABOUT YOURS HUMANLY

We believe that education is a basic human right and we are dedicated to empowering the world's most vulnerable children through access to education.

Through our work, we are educating underprivileged children in the United States and abroad in countries such as Cambodia, India, Nepal, and the Philippines.

By doing so, we are helping children rise above the vicious cycle of poverty, prostitution, and child trafficking, and empowering them to work toward better, brighter futures.

YoursHumanly®
Educating Children. Enriching Lives.

Empowering the world's most vulnerable children through access to education

OUR MISSION

To empower the world's most vulnerable children through access to education, and instill within them a sense of pride, confidence, and freedom for life.

OUR VISION

To help create a world where all children, regardless of age, gender, race, color, ethnicity, caste, religion, national origin, and physical, mental or financial ability, have a fair chance to receive a quality education at a credible educational institution.

OUR CORE VALUE

Education is a basic human right, and every child everywhere should be afforded that right in a safe and nurturing environment.

When you give to Yours Humanly, you make it possible for us to provide long-term support to the children we serve. This means that in addition to placing students in schools and providing financial assistance, we also guarantee long-term support to help each student flourish from kindergarten through twelfth grade. As a result, students can complete the education they deserve without the stress of wondering where money for school fees, uniforms, or study materials will come from.

OUR PROGRAMS

COLORING FUTURES

Coloring Futures allows us to place thousands of children around the world in their local schools. Our sponsorship covers their placement and all required tuition, as well as assistance in obtaining uniforms, study materials, and all other educational needs. Whether these children are in orphanages, on the streets, or in households that are unable to pay for schooling, they have the opportunity to receive the benefits of education through our efforts. The generosity of our donors guarantees them an education from kindergarten through twelfth grade.

Our goal is to see all the children we serve be fully educated and escape the vicious cycle of poverty, securing a better future for themselves, their families, their nations, and the world as a whole.

BRIDGING GAPS

Technological innovation is an essential element of today's global economy. Without technological know-how and the ability to communicate in English, underprivileged children lack the chance of a brighter future. While many privately funded schools possess the teachers and resources to provide English and computer education for students, many children have no access to such schools on their own. This leaves too many students behind the curve, lacking the competitive advantage necessary to work in a challenging job market.

Bridging Gaps allows us to help children overcome the struggle to access a quality education by funding the purchase and placement of computer equipment in underserved schools, setting up Internet connections, and supplying instructors in English and in computer science. In this way, the entire student body at every school we serve has access to these vital technological resources for many years.
